

Life at Horton Housing Association

Community Culture

At Horton Housing, our working culture is one based on trust, respect and inclusion. We focus on open communication, starting from the very top with consistent communication from our Chief Executive Officer (CEO). With regular meetings across schemes and departments, we really are a community who can rely on each other.

Personal Growth

We offer a multitude of development opportunities for our colleagues, including: funded qualifications, job shadowing, secondments, and internal promotions or movements across different schemes and departments.

Wellbeing

We know that work/life balance is at the heart of employee wellbeing. That's why our full time work week is only 35 hours, and we offer flexible working where possible. We also offer 6 weeks holiday (plus Bank Holidays) so you can spend more time doing what you love.

We're partnered with Health Assured to offer you free counselling available 24/7, a confidential helpline, and an app offering a range of wellbeing resources (health plans, meditation, recipes, and podcasts).

Because Financial Wellbeing is as important as mental wellbeing, we also offer an interest free employee loan scheme up to £1200.

Taking Pride in Our Vision

At Horton we always strive to deliver the best and meet the highest standards – whether this be our accommodation, support, maintenance or central services teams. We value the unique skills and experience that each of our colleagues bring to help us achieve our ambitious goals.

Empowering You to Succeed

HHA is a Strength Based Organisation, and just as we recognise the people we support to be experts in their own lives, we recognise our colleagues as experts in their roles – and encourage everyone to work with autonomy and pride. To help you reach your potential with us, we offer a range of internal training courses, including a thorough induction when you start.

Colleague Engagement

There are lots of opportunities to get involved at Horton, with a Wellbeing and EDI group open for anybody to join and have their say. We also post good news and announcements across the organisation on our SharePoint. You may even be interviewed for our quarterly magazine!

Did you know: Our CEO started with HHA as a Support Worker and worked all the way up!
