

Being part of an organisation that makes a difference - Horton Housing Association

We work with people experiencing a wide range of circumstances, including homelessness, drug and/or alcohol issues, ill-health, unemployment and domestic violence. We work with people of all ages, refugees, Gypsies and Travellers, people with disabilities and people with offending histories.

Our Commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

HHA aims to be an equal opportunities employer. HHA is committed to ensuring that no job applicant or colleague receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of a protected characteristic, criminal history or any factors irrelevant to a person's ability to do a job, at any stage of the recruitment process or in the terms and conditions offered. We are committed to equality of opportunity, to being fair and inclusive, and to being a place where everyone belongs. To achieve this we are committed to actions that will increase diversity and to encourage applications from candidates who are underrepresented in sections of our workforce. We are a Disability Confident and Clean Sheet Employer.

Our People

Horton Housing Association (HHA) is committed to being a great place to work for everyone who works here, and we get some really positive feedback from our colleagues.

In our recent annual colleague survey, more than 9 out of 10 respondents told us that:

- They had a good relationship with their line manager
- HHA's values align with their own
- They believe that Horton's work positively impacts people's lives
- They feel involved in their work.

And when we asked some of our colleagues about the best part of working at HHA here's a snapshot of what they told us.

- "The people. The people I work with. Every person's different and that's what I like about it, and I like watching people changing their lives."
- "The Training is the best bit of it. It equips you to do the job role as successfully as you can. It's very rewarding, it's been fantastic, I wouldn't change it for the world."

In short, we care about people. We work hard to be a great place to work, so that we can improve lives together.
